Kindly Note:

- Students will not receive any validation certificates or Transcripts if all the tests or assignments are not completed and handed in at IMM HQ.
- Also note that all monies must be paid up before we will process validation certificates and transcripts.
- Immanuel Theology Educational Training Institute Is not accredited by SAQA as we do not form part of the Secular World Training of DOHE Act 101 of 1997 and as such we are accredited with CTQA, Christian Theology Quality Assurance Association in terms of Our Human, Constitutional, and Religious Faith Based Rights as depicted in the SA Constitution dated 1997
- The Following Rights, Acts and Sections are Applicable to Religious Faith-Based Training.
- Constitutional Rights: In terms of the South African Constitution, we have the right to belong to a religion of choice, and that no person or entity may discriminate against us as per Sections, 7, 9, 10, 15, 16, 29, 30, 31, 33, 34, 38, 39.
- Religious Rights: Section 9 (3-5) states that we have the right to belong to a religion of choice, and that no person, entity or even the state may discriminate against us.
- The South African Charter of Religious Rights and Freedoms support our Religious Rights, especially when it comes to training in the religion of choice. This is stipulated in clauses 7 to 9 of the Bill of Rights, that also states that we are entitled to belong to a religion of choice, and have the right to be trained up in that religion of choice, and that we may also appoint our own leaders. Thus we can train up and validate our own leaders.
- Immanuel Theology Education Training Institute is however Internationally Accredited with Ballsbridge University America and QAHE, Quality Assurance of Higher Education Training Association, USA and the UK.

Application Date

Dear Student,

We thank you for your application. Welcome to Immanuel, Your ministry might have already started, or maybe this is your first day in it and we thank Jesus Christ for the opportunity to have you with us.

As a student, you will be required to act as an ambassador of The Most High in all that you do; Your habits, your language, your overall appearance, punctuality, attendance to classes, your financial responsibilities, your love for your fellow students, respect for your tutors, and most of all, your obedience, respect and love for Jesus Christ, our Lord and Saviour.

We are a part time Christian organization and hence don't have a student board or union, but every student has their Human Rights, Constitutional Right, and Faith-Based rights and so does every member of Immanuel.

We love you with the love of The Lord and urge you to practice a life of prayer and worship, and to dress, talk, walk and act as an anointed of God would.

We bless you in Jesus Name. Amen!

Yours sincerely in Christ Jesus our Lord,

His Eminence Archbishop Professor
Edward .Alfred van den Berg (PhD)
